 Visit 5 UNESCO World Heritage Sites in a Single Trip!

UNESCO World Heritage

Indulge in a curated 6-days 5-nights journey through Japan's cultural treasures - from the sophistication of Kyoto to the snowy elegance of Shirakawa-go. Immerse in refined experiences, gourmet dining, and 5 handpicked UNESCO sites that define timeless Japanese heritage.

Byodo-in Temple

Admire the iconic Phoenix Hall of Byodo-in, a dazzling symbol of paradise reflected in tranquil waters. This 1,000-year-old temple is a masterpiece of Buddhist art and elegance nestled in Uji's serene landscape.

Todai-ji

Step into ancient grandeur at Todai-ji, home to the world's largest bronze Buddha. This majestic wooden temple offers a spiritual and awe-inspiring experience surrounded by peaceful deer and timeless history.

Ogimachi Village

Travel back in time at Ogimachi, the heart of Shirakawa-go. Its steep thatched-roof houses and mountain setting create a fairytale-like atmosphere, especially magical in snow — a living heritage of Japan's rural past.

Kinkaku-ji

Marvel at the Golden Pavilion shimmering above its mirror-like pond. Kinkaku-ji is a breathtaking fusion of architecture and nature, where every season paints a different picture of timeless beauty and peace.

Kiyomizu-dera

Perched on a hillside with sweeping views of Kyoto, Kiyomizu-dera stuns with its wooden stage and sacred springs. This historic temple invites you to experience tradition, beauty, and spiritual serenity all in one.
